HANOI CITY TOUR

Grade: Easy

Trip code: FAT - HNCT

Hanoi's history dates back almost a thousand years. During that time it has witnessed numerous incursions from China, seen a host of Vietnamese emperors come and go and at one time even lose its status as the nation's capital. The city's temples and pagodas and the religious practices performed reflect a strong Chinese influence. For nearly 800 years, Hanoi was the home of various royal dynasties until Hue became the new imperial capital in 1802. With the coming of the French at the end of the 19th century the city gained a new lease of life. This European influence can still be seen in the elegant colonial buildings that line the broad tree-lined boulevards of much of the city. Today, the capital has a population approaching 4 million people; yet it still has the feeling of a small town, particularly in and around the Old Quarter.

At 8.00 am, there will be a pick up from your hotel.

The tour is split into a morning session with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Complex and the Temple of Literature.

We'll then take lunch at one of Hanoi's many fine restaurants.

In the afternoon, we'll visit the Museum of Ethnology, the Ngoc Son Temple and Hoan Kiem Lake and also one hour cyclo tour through the Old Quarter.

At approximately 6.00pm, we will return you to your hotel. If you prefer we can arrange for you to watch a performance of the famous Water Puppet Theatre. (Optional)

HAPPY SUNDAY AT BINH LUC ORPHANAGE

Grade: Easy

Trip code: VDBLSU

Established in 1990, the Binh Luc Orphanage provides a home for 43 children aged between 3 and 15 years old as well as a 2 month old baby. The children of Binh Luc come from disadvantaged agricultural communities. In many cases the families cannot afford to raise or educate the children and are forced to abandon them. With limited assistance from the local government, the orphanage relies heavily on donations and sponsorship. Buffalo Tours is proud to be a leading patron for the orphanage. A monthly fund from Buffalo Tours is now directly transferred to Binh Luc Centre for a nutritional program.

To generate further awareness and funding for the orphanage, Buffalo Tours has a community project scheme in place, where travelers can volunteer their time to assist in the orphanage. Depending on time and availability, volunteers may be involved in English language training; preparing nutritional meals or building educational facilities and resources. Or simply join our Binh Luc day trip for a visit and a play with the children.

Morning:

Departing Hanoi at 8.30am, we will drive 70 km to Ha Nam Province; it's a very pleasant drive with beautiful landscape outside the window. We will arrive in the Binh Luc Orphanage Centre around 10.30am.

Upon arrival we will spend some time to talk to the orphanage Director – also a surrogate mum to the children. Then we will meet the children and have a tour of the orphanage.

At midday, we will join the children for lunch. You will have the chance to sit with the kids and learn some Vietnamese and provide them with the opportunity to practice their English.

Afternoon:

After lunch, around 1.30pm – 2.30pm, we will gather in the classroom. With the support of the tour guide, we will run 2 - 3 small English games and 1 fun game with the children. After the games, we will present any donations or gifts to Mrs. Hoa, the director.

Time and weather permitting, we can play some outdoor games before heading back to Hanoi (e.g. badminton, football). Our vehicle will take us back to Hanoi at 3.15pm, arriving back in Hanoi around 5pm.

HO CHI MINH CITY - DAY TRIP

HO CHI MINH CITY – FULL DAY CITY TOUR

Best season: Year round

Trip code: FAT - HCMFD

Saigon as the city is still frequently referred to be Vietnam's largest city. It is a fast-paced city full of contrasts as street vendors selling fruit and vegetables can be seen next to glitzy western-style bars and boutiques. Saigon's history is only 300 years old. In 1859 the city was captured by the French and became the capital of Cochinchina. From 1956 until its dramatic demise in April 1975 it was the capital of the US-backed Republic of Vietnam. Today, Ho Chi Minh City is very much the heart of Vietnamese business and entrepreneurs. And yet the city still retains its connections to the past, particularly in Cholon, Saigon's Chinatown. Here dozens of elegant temples and pagodas can be seen. The French also left their mark with some fine colonial-era buildings such as the Notre Dame Cathedral and the Central Post Office.

This city tour unravels Saigon's turbulent past and also provides a glimpse into the fascinating variety the city has to offer. The tour is split into a morning and afternoon schedule, with a tasty lunch in between!

AM:

- The Reunification Palace: This is one of the most important buildings in the city.
- War Remnants Museum: Formerly known as the Museum of American War Crimes, this is a poignant display of the futility of war.
- Notre Dame Cathedral and Old Post Office: Built between 1877 and 1883 this is one of the best examples of classical French colonial architecture.

PM:

- Giac Lam Pagoda: This is Saigon's oldest pagoda, dating back to 1744 and one of the finest in Vietnam.
- Cholon, including the Thien Hau Pagoda: Cholon actually means Big Market – a claim that is well justified as Vietnam's largest market, the Binh Tay is situated here.
- Ben Thanh Market: This bustling market is very popular with tourists, primarily due to its central location. It has a wide selection of goods ranging from fake Nike shoes to beautiful silk Ao Dais.

The tour finishes at approximately 6.00pm when you will be transferred back to your hotel.

HOME CONCERT IN SAIGON

Best season: Year round

Trip code: FAT - HCSG

Highlights: Private concert; chance to play traditional instruments

Mr Linh and Mrs. Mai are two musicians, raised and studied in Hanoi before moving to the South of Vietnam to pursue their passion for Vietnamese music. Linh and Mai now run a traditional music theatre from their home and welcome travelers to visit their private home concerts. Upon arrival, tea is served and our hosts introduce the musical instruments with a brief history and cultural background, before commencing the private concert.

And what a concert! It's hard not to be entranced by the passion of the musicians and the instruments themselves – the whistle, guitar, lute, tambourine and 36 strings piano, from which exude distinct harmonious and melancholic sounds. To close the show, they invite guests to try playing the various musical instruments with them in a 'concert finale'. This is a wonderful evening activity and a truly unique glimpse in Saigonese life.

OVERNIGHT TRIPS – From HCM CITY

DA LAT MOUNTAIN BREAK – 3 Days

Best season: Year round

Trip code: FAT – DLMB3D

The former French hill station of Dalat, once called 'Le Petit Paris', is situated 300 km north of Ho Chi Minh City in the Central Highlands. It is an ideal place to escape from the heat of Vietnam's largest city. Because of its elevation, 1,500 meters above sea level, Dalat's climate is much cooler than that of the surrounding lowlands. This tour is ideal for those people with limited time and can be booked with the option of drive/fly or fly both ways. Likewise, the accommodation can be upgraded to five-star if desired. Sightseeing tours include the art deco summer residence of Vietnam's last emperor, Bao Dai and the village of the Lac minority people, after whom the city is named.

Day 1: Ho Chi Minh City - Dalat

This morning we will leave Ho Chi Minh City and head for the hills, literally. The scenic 7 hours drive along Highway 20 to Dalat will be broken up by stops at some of the tea and coffee plantations. We will stop for lunch at the picturesque Pongjuar waterfalls, about 15 km from the highway. By late to mid afternoon, there will be the chance for a short walk to get a feel for this delightful city. (L)

Day 2: Dalat

Around 8.00am this morning, we'll leave for a tour of Dalat and the surrounding areas. We'll begin with a visit to the Lam Ty Ni pagoda and follow this with a trip to the summer palace of Vietnam's last Emperor, Bao Dai. From here we'll visit the rather bizarre and very aptly named Crazy House, a brightly painted concrete house which winds itself around trees, mimicking their shapes. It now functions as a guesthouse. Lastly, we visit a Lat minority people's village, where the people live in wooden, thatched huts. This afternoon, for those who are interested we can take the short train ride on the Cremaillere railway to the village of Tri Mat. This evening there will be more fine cuisine at a local restaurant. (L, D)

Day 3: Dalat

This morning we'll check out of the hotel and drive back to Ho Chi Minh City.
